New Resources to Guide your SNAP E&T Participants' Success

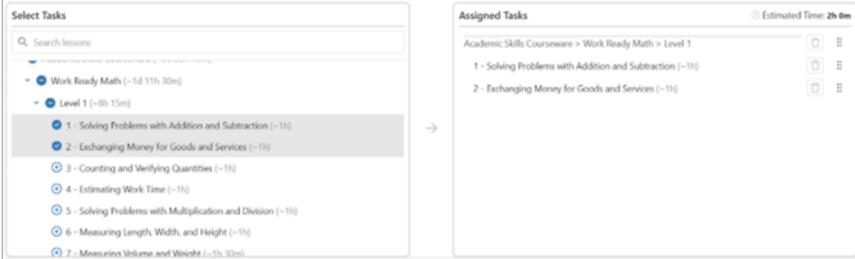

Florida Ready to Work remains committed to supporting SNAP E&T participants by helping them build essential skills and prepare for long-term employment success. The Florida Ready to Work team has created a set of helpful resources approved by the Florida Department of Commerce to support you in implementing the program with SNAP E&T participants. Explore our newly redesigned web page for CareerSource Florida Network Resources here. Click on Implementation Resources. After you have signed-up, be sure to bookmark the page.

In March, CareerSource Northeast Florida and CareerSource South Florida shared powerful, real-world examples of how they're leveraging the program to meet training requirements and empower job seekers. We also explored how Florida Ready to Work aligns with key SNAP E&T and WT activity categories, such as Job Search Training and Education.

ICYMI: Refreshed Assignment Manager Feature

Just in time for the beginning of the 2025-26 program year, the Assignment Manager feature updates are here! This week, Florida Ready to Work, powered by WIN Learning, released updates to Assignment Manager, including a refreshed look and several new features and capabilities. In the new Assignment Manager, administrators can now assign tasks at the lesson level, allowing for a more customized experience for learners. Administrators can also create assignment templates that can be saved and shared with other members of their organization. For more information, contact your local Florida Ready to Work team member.
